.....PAYABLE IN ADVANCE.....Shrinking Savings.

Nothing shows more clearly the strain on the resources of the people, caused by the increased cost of living, than the shrinkage of savings reported by the Savings Banks. High prices—caused by tariff protection, which fosters trusts and combinations and creates monopoly—if they do not in every case force the withdrawal of savings, certainly prevent adding to the store. Those who have been self-denying enough to save will rarely spend their savings except through an extreme necessity. What a crime it is, therefore, to tax necessities—that should be free—to enable the protected few to profit at the expense of the many!

This high protective-tariff tax is a two-edged sword. It decreases importations that would compete with the products of our trusts and combines, and allows the prices of home products to be increased nearly to the same level as the imported articles could be sold be relatively lower; and to preserve their trade, the home manufacturers would have to also reduce the price of their products.

The protectionists declare that to reduce the tariff on manufactured products would make paupers of the workmen employed, because they would have to compete with the pauper labor of Europe and elsewhere. But experience in England shows that since the free trade era began, the wage of all kinds of labor have risen over 100 per cent, and the governments savings banks have more deposits year after year.

Then, there is the future experience of Germany and France since those countries adopted high protection has their policy; commodities have so advanced in price that there is great unrest among the working men and those with small salaries, and demands are being made to reduce the tariff taxes, which, as in the United States, protect the manufacturers at the expense of the consumers.

One can hardly wonder, therefore, that with savings decreasing and the price of necessities continually increasing there is a strong trend toward Democracy, which stands for tariff for revenue instead of tariff for protection.

Old as Democracy.

"There is nothing new under the sun," and we find that the Colonel's "New Nationalism" is as old as the Democratic party, and probably as ancient as the Anglo-Saxon race, now that he has told us just what it stands for:—"Efficient honesty and the right of the people to rule." Such has always been Democratic policy; for the question, "Is he honest and is he able?" has always been applied to Democratic candidates for office. The right of the people to rule has never been questioned by any party; and to preserve that right from Republican despoilers, the Democracy has demanded and put in force—where it has been given the power—state-wide primaries, the initiative and the referendum, and is still demanding the election of United States Senator by popular vote, which the Republican majority in Congress has denied.

It is plain, therefore, that Mr. Roosevelt in his search for something new has merely become a plagiarist of what has long been the property of Democracy. Get a move on you, Teddy, and invent something new, for your "New Nationalism" is as old as the hills to most of us, though it has long been hidden under a bushel by the Republican leaders, including yourself. But are you sure you have told us all that the New Nationalism stands for?

Balm for Defeated Ones.

A glorious defeat is often much better and more satisfactory than a very easy victory.

It's the World's Best.

No one has ever made a salve, ointment or balm to compare with Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Its the one perfect healer of cuts, corns, ulcers, bruises, sores, scalds, boils, eczema, salt rheum. For sore eyes, cold sores, chapped hands or sprains, it's supreme. Infallible for piles. Only 25c at all druggists.

A Republican on Insurgents.

The President of the League of Republican Clubs, John H. Hammond, is a stalwart of the most strenuous partisan type. He hates insurgents as much as old Uncle Joe does, or, if it were possible, perhaps more so. The League at its late meeting—which, as far as the number of delegates present, was a failure and a "frost"—was addressed by Mr. Hammond who paid particular attention to the insurgents whom he divided into five classes. First, the "Calamity Howlers who aim to create political chaos; second, the Unintelligent Intellectuals; third, the Unctuous Rectitudinists; fourth, the Suburbanites, who merge into the last class of insurgents or progressives."

Mr. Hammond portrayed each of the first four classes of insurgents in a scornful way, but gave a good deal of soft soap to the last class, probably because their numbers are greater and their votes are therefore more necessary to the Republican success. As this Republican leader holds a most important position in the Republican party organization, and is said to be very ambitious to hold high office, it is well for all classes of insurgents to know his partisan bias and his efforts to read out of the Republican party those who differ with him on the tariff and other issues. But few of our Republican contemporaries have, for obvious reasons, published this picture to the insurgents, so we hasten to fill the hiatus for news is news.

Good News from the Youth's Companion.

We have had to make the Youth's Companion larger to get in all the good things that Companion readers ought to have. The added amount would make four hundred pages of standard magazine size and print; but we have kept the price just the same—$1.75 for the fifty-two weeks of 1911, and all the issues for the rest of this year free from the time you seen in your subscription.

We would like to tell you what is in store for Companion readers next year. We cannot do it here, though, there is not enough room. But send us your address on a postcard, and we will send you the beautiful prospectus of the Companion for 1911, announcing many new features, together with sample copies of the paper.

We think you will agree, when you have read them, that there is no other paper that gives quite so much of such a high quality as the Companion.

The new subscriber receives a gift of the Companion's Art Calendar for 1911, reproducing in twelve colors and gold a beautiful water color garden scene.

Free Sample Aids Old Men

The sudden change from years of activity of both body and mind to the quiet of later years causes the human system to undergo many changes, chief of which is in the digestive organs.

It becomes harder and harder to get the bowels to move promptly and regularly and in consequence many elderly men suffer not only from the basic trouble, constipation, but from indigestion, headache, belching, sour stomach, drowsiness after eating and similar annoyances. It is first of all necessary to keep the bowels open and then to tone the digestive muscles so as to get them to again do their work naturally. A violent cathartic or purgative is not only unnecessary but harmful, and something mild will do the work just as well.

After you have got through experimenting with salts and waters of various kinds, and have become convinced that they do only temporary good at best, then try Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, a mild, gentle, pleasant-tasting laxative tonic that is especially adapted to the requirements of old people, women and children, and yet is effective enough for anybody. Your druggist, who has handled it successfully for a quarter of a century, will sell you a bottle for fifty cents or one dollar, but if you want to make a test of it before spending any money send your name and address to Dr. Caldwell and he will gladly send you a sample bottle free of charge.

This remedy is rapidly displacing all other forms of medication for the cure of stomach, liver and bowel trouble, and families like Mr. O. F. Wither's of Sycamore, Ill., and Mrs. Carrie Culler's of 325 N. Notre Dame street, South Bend, Ind., are now never without it in the house. They have tested it and know its grand value to every member of the family.

Dr. Caldwell personally will be pleased to give you any medical advice you may desire for yourself or family pertaining to the stomach, liver or bowels absolutely free of charge. Explain your case in a letter and he will reply to you in detail. For the free sample simply send your name and address on a postal card or otherwise. For either request the doctor's address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, R. 500 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

STOMACH LIVER LUNGS

Each of the chief organs of the body is a link in the Chain of Life. A chain is no stronger than its weakest link, the body no stronger than its weakest organ. If there is weakness of stomach, liver or lungs, there is a weak link in the chain of life which may snap at any time. Often this so-called "weakness" is caused by lack of nutrition, the result of weakness or disease of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. Diseases and weaknesses of the stomach and its allied organs are cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. When the weak or diseased stomach is cured, diseases of other organs which seem remote from the stomach but which have their origin in a diseased condition of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, are cured also.

The strong man has a strong stomach. Take the above recommended "Discovery" and you may have a strong stomach and a strong body.

GIVEN AWAY.—Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, new revised Edition, is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or 31 stamps for the cloth-bound volume. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

The Secret of Youth

Do you ever wonder how you can remain young, or why other women older than you, look younger than you do?

The secret can be put in a few words: "Preserve your health, and you will preserve your youth."

By "health" we mean not alone physical health, but nerve health, as, sometimes, magnificently strong-looking women are nervous wrecks.

But whether you are weak physically or nervously, you need a tonic, and the best tonic for you is Cardui.

It builds strength for the physical and nervous systems. It helps put flesh on your bones and vitality into your nerves.

The Woman's Tonic

"My mother," writes Mrs. Z. L. Adcock, of Smithville, Tenn., "is 44 years old and is passing through the change of life."

"She was irregular and bloated and suffered terribly. My father stepped over to the store and got her a bottle of Cardui, which she took according to directions and now she is up, able to do her housework and says she feels like a new woman." Try Cardui in your own case.
